Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 18 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry today, some brightness especially in the south.

Today:
Some low cloud lingering across northern Aberdeenshire and some parts of northern Moray. Elsewhere dry and bright, feeling mild in the sunshine. Low cloud becoming more widespread later this afternoon. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
A mainly cloudy evening and night with occasional drizzle along the north coast, dry elsewhere. Brisk northwesterly winds across the east easing down this evening. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Friday:
Mainly cloudy and dry, feeling rather cold. Some sunshine breaking through across the west where it will feel mild. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A mainly dry few days ahead, some sunshine at times especially on Saturday. Feeling mild in the sunshine too.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.